Port City Animation Festival

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Why have an animation festival?

To show the coolest animated shorts we can find on a big movie screen. We like this stuff and think you will too.

Isn't animation just for kids?

No. Animation has a reputation for being just for kids because that's what gets shown the most on TV and in movie theaters. Much of the best animated work is shown at film festivals and at other independent venues.

What are these films rated?

None of the films have been rated.

Should I bring my kids?

We have a children's screening, which is appropriate for all ages. Most of the other work we show in the evenings could be considered PG, PG-13 and a few could be rated R.

INFREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How long can a cheetah hold its breath underwater?

3 minutes and 54 seconds

What ever happened to that guy, "Bull," from "Night Court?"

That guy's name is Richard Moll. We haven't seen him lately either.

Aren't these questions really just wasting space?

Yes.

Guest Animator:

Bill
Plympton

Editor's Note: Holy Crap! Bill Plympton is this year's guest animator!

As the creator of over 30 animated shorts, four animated features, and two live-action feature films, Bill Plympton is an accomplished filmmaker whose work has been praised by critics and is a constant favorite of film festivals worldwide.

His oblique, off-center sense of the ridiculous in everyday life has made the "Microtoons" and his other shorts a popular MTV offering. His distinctive style has even invaded the world of advertising.

Bill's short film "Guard Dog" has been a big hit at film festivals, and it brought Bill his second Oscar nomination in January 2005.

Bill will be hosting a special screening of his work on Sunday Sept. 18 at 7 p.m. at City Stage Theater!

This program is sponsored in part by the UNCW Film Studies Department.
